

Cranbrook GCSE Music

Across

3. The musical Era in which Purcell composed 'Music for a While'
5. An upbeat into a phrase
7. When part of a melody is based on a scale
8. The distance between two notes
9. When a singer has a passage of almost spoken text

10. The play by John Dryden to which Purcell composed the incidental music for

Down

1. The Italian term for very quiet
2. Repetition of a melody in a downwards direction
4. The manner in which a note or a series of notes are played
6. When a chord is played one note at a time from the bottom up