

Name: _____

Date: _____

Cranium, Facial Bones, and Paranasal Sinuses

Across

2. This is where the CR is centered for an AP axial projection of the mandible.

5. The three aspects of the temporal bones are the mastoid, petrous and _____.

6. What is the older term for the maxillary sinuses?

7. This is the name of the small membrane that connects the middle ear to the inner ear.

9. The frontal sinuses rarely become aerated before the age of _____?

10. The wormian bones are most frequently found in the _____?

Down

1. This is a pair of facial bones not visible from the exterior.

3. This facial bone(s) is associated with the tear ducts.

4. Benign tumor of the auditory nerve sheath.

8. Small, irregular bones that sometimes develop in adult skull sutures are called wormian or _____.