

Creating Community

Across

2. Good communicators are often very _____ of their audience and their audience's feelings. They do not want to offend anyone.

7. Focus and be _____ when sharing your thoughts. It can be difficult to have a conversation with someone who is vague.

9. One quality of an effective communicator that we listed in class

10. Sometimes, others will not understand you or think at a slower pace than you. In these circumstances, we need to be _____.

11. It is important that you try to relate or _____ with others as you are speaking to them. They want you to have a deep understanding of where they are coming from and what they are feeling

12. It is important to come _____ when you are wanting to talk about something with someone.

13. When playing a game with others, it is important to _____ the agreed upon rules

Down

1. One aspect of body language effective communicators use when talking to others is good _____.

3. Body language, verbal words, and technology are all forms of _____.

4. The extra amount you pay on top of the total when you purchase a good

5. As an effective communicator, you will need to read your _____ in order to adjust to their spoken language

6. Be _____ when communicating with others! They want to hear what you have to say!

8. Body language, eye contact, proximity, etc. are examples of _____ cues.