

Name: _____

Date: _____

Creation of an Act

Across

1. There are various methods of law reform used by the Law Commission. What method brings together both the existing Acts and the case law on a particular topic and makes them into one Act?
4. There are various types of Bills, which type of Bill is introduced in response to a specific incident or honor manifesto promises
6. What is the independent permanent and full - time reform body that keeps all law under review and updates the law and recommends changes.
8. The UK Parliament consists of two houses, the House of Commons and the House of _____.
9. During the process of enactment of Bills, what stage comes after the committee stage?

10. There are various methods of law reform used by the Law Commission. What is the process of gathering various Acts of Parliament on related topics into one Act.

Down

2. What is the final step needed to enact a Bill after it passes both the Commons and the Lords?
3. Laws made by Parliament are referred to as "Acts" or "Statutes" or _____.
5. What is the supreme legislative authority in the UK?
7. What influenced the parliament to create Sarah's Law?