

Name: _____

Date: _____

Creative Arts

Across

4. Someone who creates an original score for productions that require music.
5. A solo performer who speaks directly to the audience in order to make them laugh.
8. A performer who sings professionally.
9. Someone who is responsible for the overall creative vision of the play and for making sure that all the different aspects come together.
10. A person hired by the day to play a small part, usually unmemorable, in a film.

Down

1. Someone who creates the visual world of the play.
2. Someone who write the play alone or may write it together with the cast.
3. Someone who is responsible for the business and financial administration of the production.
6. A performer who is trained to move expressively and rhythmically, often in a particular style.
7. A performer who presents a silent performance in which physical movement and gesture tell the story.