

Criminal Behavior Theories

Across

4. Believed that criminal behavior is learned from working with criminal partners
6. Believed that certain factors (ex. low self sentiment or sub average super ego) relate to criminal behavior
8. Believed that criminal behavior is substitute response (ex. release of anxiety)
9. Found criminals to be more extraverted than non criminals
10. Found murders to have higher levels of neuroticism and anxiety than other offenders

Down

1. Believed that criminal behavior is a result of childhood experiences
2. Found that female criminals had higher levels of psychoticism and extraversion than males
3. Found that delinquents have higher levels of anxiety than non delinquents
5. Found criminals to be less extraverted than non criminals
7. Stressed the hereditary aspects of criminal behavior

Word Bank

Eysenck
Cattell
Vold

Lombroso
Millman
Rao and Sen

Hussian
Freud

Sutherland
Singh