

Critical Thinking & Problem-solving

Across

5. To explain the meaning or significance of information, actions, experiences, situations, data, events, or criteria.

10. The objective analysis and evaluation of an issue in order to form a judgment

11. To mention a number of things, one by one.

13. To form an opinion or conclusion about.

14. The action of putting something into operation.

17. Personal monitoring and control, without action or influence from external bodies (two words).

19. To assess the believability of things such as statements, descriptions, relationships, perceptions, experience, or data.

20. Examine or inspect closely and thoroughly.

21. Facts, information, and skills acquired by a person through experience or education.

Down

1. Combining of ideas to form a theory or system; often contrasted with analysis

2. To draw a conclusion, based upon evidence and reasoning.

3. The process of finding solutions to difficult or complex issues (two words).

4. The action or capability of understanding something

6. To establish or indicate who or what, somebody or something is.

7. The use of imagination to produce or bring into existence.

8. A series of actions or steps taken in order to achieve a particular end.

9. To provide a statement or account that makes something clear.

12. To break a complex topic or situation into smaller parts in order to gain a better understanding of it.

15. An established or official way of doing something.

16. A matter or situation regarded as unwelcome or harmful, and needing to be overcome.

18. To use one's mind toward forming or connecting ideas.