

Critical Vocabulary

Across

4. The Prime Minister said that we are entering a time of great
8. The adjective of peril.
9. The adjective of compensation.
11. The adverb of credulity.
12. When we met again by chance in Cairo, I felt it must be

13. Only a few tables and chairs remained by the time we got to the auction.
14. She received £20,000 in for her broken leg.

Down

1. Advertisers were accused of exploiting consumers'
2. We sent our to his widow and children.
3. The adverb of resignation.

5. If you make a grimace, you feel
6. If you condole someone, you express your
7. She received the disappointing news with
10. There were a lot of, and a little dry bark sometimes, but never a laugh.