

Name: _____

Crossword Puzzle Review Q3

Across

6. In symbolic interaction the narrative that informs social expectations is called a social _____

8. In symbolic interaction this fourth step is when society accepts a new social value and resulting norms

11. In symbolic interaction this is the first step when a problem is identified

12. In symbolic interaction these are also known as symbolic situations

13. Social _____ argues that problems are a result of something broken in society

14. The "Thesis" argument of structural-functionalism/social pathology is supported by these theories

Down

1. A non-Marxist or _____-based argument that those with the power and resources make the rules

2. The "Anti-thesis" argument of structural-functionalism/social pathology is supported by these theories

3. Social _____ argues that problems result from change in society

4. In symbolic interaction this second step is when evidence is provided

5. In symbolic interaction this third step when a problem includes activism and legislation

7. The conflict theory that argues that the dominant culture use their power and resources to oppress women

9. The conflict theory argument that problems are the result of inequality inherent in capitalism

10. This theory argues that problems are a result of competition over power and resources