

Crossword - The Industrial Revolution

Across

3. One could describe the working conditions in a factory as:

4. An invention that made transporting people and goods extremely efficient.

5. A group of workers who specialize in a certain field to focus on a certain set of work to get things done extremely efficiently.

9. One could describe the working conditions in a factory as:

11. One of the two long term effects of the Industrial Revolution:

13. The development of urban architecture and civilian work, leading to many more people moving into the cities.

14. One of the two reasons why the industrial revolution occurred in Britain first.

15. An invention that made communication easier.

Down

1. The sharp rise of agricultural development in Europe

2. The steep rise of industrial work and factory manufacturing.

6. An invention that made cotton work more efficient.

7. When a group of workers who are unhappy with how their employers treat them and revolt by refusing to work until their demands are met.

8. One of the two reasons why the industrial revolution occurred in Britain first

10. One of the two long term effects of the Industrial Revolution:

12. One could describe the working conditions in a factory as:

Word Bank

Inventions

Exhausting

Wealth

Locomotive

Urbanization

Stressful

CottonGin

LaborUnion

Strike

MoreWork

Agriculturalrevolution

SpinningJenny

IndustrialRevolution

Population

Dirty