

Name: _____

Date: _____

Cultural Anthropology Review

Across

- 2. A group within a larger culture that defines itself (or is defined by others) in opposition or in distinction to the majority
- 4. A cultural category that divides the human race into subspecies based on supposed biological differences
- 8. The holistic study of humankind
- 10. Relatives created through marriage
- 12. A gender status in the Philippines that involves a natal man dressed as a woman

- 13. A formal description of some phenomenon in the world that explains how that thing works
- 14. Kinship relationships that are real but not based on marriage or descent
- 15. The idea that something is only right or wrong according to context-specific criteria

Down

- 1. A set of expectations regarding proper behavior and appearance for a particular gender
- 3. Social processes by which people give and receive goods and services

- 5. The integration of local, regional, and/or national production, exchange, and culture into a global system
- 6. A system of verbal and nonverbal symbols used to communicate
- 7. Any patterned, repeated, predictable action
- 9. Within a centralized form of government, a small group holding power over the majority
- 11. Ritual practices that are believed to have effects on particular situations