

Cultural Competency

Across

- 1. Imposing one's culture on another person's culture
- 3. Based on cultural understanding, provides a strong bridge to identifying the overall needs of a patient
- 5. preventable differences in the burden disease, injury, violence or opportunities to achieve optimal health that are experienced by socially disadvantaged populations
- 7. familiarity with various cultural differences
- 9. Racial Prejudice
- 11. The ability to obtain, read, understand, and use healthcare information in order to make appropriate health decisions and follow instructions for treatment
- 15. Emotional shock experienced by immersed in a different culture
- 16. A belief that one's own way of viewing and experiencing the world is superior to other perspectives
- 19. Are respectful of and responsive to individual cultural health beliefs and practices, preferred languages and communication needs of patient in multiple health care settings
- 24. A way of life that involve unique characteristics of human beings, wherein they share a pattern of learned behavior such as customs and moral conduct

- 25. Crucial to providing holistic care
 - 27. Understanding of differences between a person and people from other countries, background, beliefs, value
 - 29. Prejudice in a favor of or against one thing, person, or group compared with another usually in a way to be considered unfair
 - 30. Used to obtain a culturally specific information needed to provide individualized care for diverse patients
 - 31. how professional nursing interacts with the concept of culture, based in anthropology and nursing theory by research and practice
- Down
- 2. your nursing knowledge with cultural needs of the patient results in the patient being better informed and, it is hoped, more cooperative with health care regimen
 - 4. A thing that is accepted as true or as certain to happen without proof
 - 6. unjust or prejudicial treatment of different categories of people or things
 - 8. Awareness and Acceptance of Cultural Differences
 - 10. The action of explaining the meaning of something
 - 12. Refusal to recognize the cultural needs of another person

- 13. this is the time when you deliver culturally competent care
- 14. the absence of avoidable, unfair, or remediable differences among groups of people
- 17. the process of translating words or text from one language into another
- 18. ability to work alongside people with different culture
- 20. a belief that things have a set of characteristics which make them what they are, and that the task of science and philosophy is their discovery and expression
- 21. meeting cultural needs assist in improving health and health related outcomes is important for every nurse
- 22. conflict that is based on ethnocentric thinking
- 23. Motivation to "want to" engage in the process of becoming culturally aware, knowledgeable, and skillful
- 26. Assuming that all people of one culture or race have the same personal characteristics
- 28. for another person's cultural needs inspire the trust two people can have for each other and foster cooperation