

Culture Review

Across

4. are sanctions that can be applied by most members of a group.
 5. actual behavior patterns of members of a group.
 11. are rules defining appropriate and inappropriate behavior.
 13. sanctions that may be applied only by officially designated persons.
 15. Any culture whose values and lifestyles are opposed to those of the established mainstream culture.
 19. a group of people who live in a defined territory and participate in a common culture.
 20. Humans use _____ to pass their ideas, experiences and knowledge to others.
 21. Knowledge, language, values, customs and physical objects that are shared by members of society.

23. Norms that are defined and enforced by officials.
 24. Cultural transmission depends heavily on.
 25. a group that is part of the dominant culture but that differs from it in some important respects.
 26. Norms that have moral dimensions.
 27. physical objects that make up a culture.
Down
 1. are rewards and punishments used to encourage conformity to norms.
 2. impulses to reduce discomfort.
 3. general cultural traits that exist in all cultures.
 6. the borrowing of aspects of culture from other cultures.
 7. the study of the biological basis of human behavior.

8. is a norm so strong that its violation calls for strong punishment.
 9. Ideas, knowledge, gestures, beliefs, etc. that influence people's behavior.
 10. Judging others in terms of one's own cultural standards.
 12. a belief, ideal, or principle that a person or group has to determine what is correct, desirable, and proper.
 14. Norms that lack moral significance.
 16. The most culturally diverse country in the world.
 17. ideas about the nature of reality.
 18. cultural guidelines that group members claim to accept.
 22. an automatic reaction to a physical stimulus.