

Culture & Health Literacy

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| Across 3. Cultural understanding that provides a strong bridge to identify the overall needs of the patient. 12. Assuming that all people of one culture or race have the same personal characteristics. 20. A set of distinct characteristics such as skin color that are genetically & biologically transmitted. 21. A strategy used for making written and oral information easier to understand. 22. Word that describes racial prejudice. 23. The organization that gives every person the right to refuse treatment. 24. Prejudice is a successful approach to human care? (True or False) 25. The actual time that you deliver cultural competent care. 27. Conflict that is based on ethnocentric thinking. 28. Pain language , Clear and Simple , Cultural competency. 30. Similar to ethnocentrism , occurs when one person imposes the rules of his or her culture on another person. | Down 1. Awareness and acceptance of cultural difference. 2. How many patient skills are needed for health literacy? 4. The degree to which individuals have the capacity to obtain, process, and understanding basic health information and services needed to make health decisions. 5. The greatest barrier to cultural competency. 6. A crucial aspect of holistic care and doesn't exist without an understanding of culture. 7. A subgroup of health care. 8. When an individual refuses to recognize the cultural needs of another person. 9. President Barack Obama signed this into law on March 23, 2010. 10. Federally funded children's health insurance. 11. Patients with limited health literacy have difficulty knowing the connection between _____. 13. Emotional shock experienced by being immersed in a different culture. 14. When specific employee behaviors are managed. 15. Who wins in a power struggle? | 16. Patients w/limited health literacy have difficulties locating providers and services, and filling out forms? 17. A set of individuals who are respectful and responsive to individual cultural health beliefs , practices, preferred languages and communication needs of patients in multiple health- care settings. 18. Is a way of life that involves unique characteristics of human beings, wherein they share a pattern of learned behaviors such as customs and moral conduct. 19. Health literacy tends to vary generation. (True or False) 26. How many descriptors are used to define cultural competence? 29. Often healthcare providers use words that patients don't understand. (True or False) |
|---|---|---|

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|-----------------------------|--------------------------|---------------------|---------------------|
| HEALTH LITERACY INITIATIVES | CLAS | RISKY BEHAVIORS | CULTURE |
| CULTURAL IMPOSITION | INCLUSION | HEALTH LITERACY | CULTURAL COMPETENCE |
| CHIP | NURSING | AFFORDABLE CARE ACT | TRUE |
| FIVE | COMMUNICATION | CULTURAL ENCOUNTER | CULTURAL BLINDNESS |
| TRUE | TRUE | FALSE | EIGHT |
| PAIN LANGUAGE | RACISM | CULTURAL CONFLICT | DIGNITY |
| NO ONE | CULTURAL SHOCK | ETHNOCENTRISM | STEREOTYPING |
| RACE | Patient Care Partnership | | |