

Name: _____

Cyber Law

Across

2. The communication via computer or other electronic device of false data that damages a person's reputation.
4. A crime that involves using a computer to steal computer data stored in a digital format.
7. Area of the law which concerns computers and computer related crime.
9. The use of the computer to sabotage computer networks vital to national welfare.
11. Concerned with who is paying the taxes or lawsuits when dealing with e-commerce.
12. Provides for criminal prosecution of individuals who engage in copyright infringement. electronic theft
14. Protecting the rights of people's original creative

15. Make sure a buyer and seller can identify themselves.

16. A crime in which a cyber criminal falsely adopts the identity of another computer user in order to commit fraud.

17. Transmitting computer viruses to people to destroy their computer system or files.

18. Any criminal activity associated with a computer.

19. Any illegal activity already in the criminal code committed by using a computer.

Down

1. The use of information unlawfully obtained by computer to pressure a victim into granting a payoff to the blackmailer.

3. Involves the invasion, distortion, theft, falsification, misuse, destruction, or exploitation of information stored in or related to electronic devices.

5. An unwelcome intrusion into the private matters of an individual carried out or sustained by a computer.

6. Intentionally disrupting, defacing, or even destroying a site.

8. Business conducted electronically (buying/selling on web).

10. intellectual property

13. Using a computer to steal personal data.