

Name: _____

Date: _____

Cyber Security Workshop

Across

2. Malicious programs that are disguised as legitimate software, but actually carry out hidden, harmful functions

3. Protocol for webpages

4. Malicious computer program that can spread to other files.

6. The process of converting information or data into a code,

8. Used to describe hacking activity carried out for a political, ethical or societal end

10. A type of malware that can secretly record a user's keystrokes and send them to an unauthorised third party

11. Malicious attempts to damage, disrupt or gain unauthorised access to computer systems, networks or devices, via cyber means?

13. A form of malware that can replicate and spread without the need for human or system interaction. Think of it as malware on autopilot

14. Files placed on your computer to allow websites to remember details

Down

1. Software that is designed to detect, stop and remove viruses and other kinds of malicious software.

5. Untargeted, mass emails sent to many people asking for sensitive information (such as bank details) or encouraging them to visit a fake website.

7. Hardware or software which uses a defined rule set to constrain network traffic to prevent unauthorised access to or from a network

9. Someone with some computer skills who uses them to break into computers, systems and network

12. Banners and popups that appear on a webpage