

Cyber bullying

Across

5. to prevent or restrict the entrance of

6. to treat with insolence, indignity, or contempt

8. to set apart from others

10. a feeling that one must do the same things as other people to be liked

12. to drive danger or attack away from

13. to be different, opposed, or contradictory

14. one that is subjected to oppression, hardship, or mistreatment

Down

1. to make timid or fearful

2. one that commits or practices aggression

3. one who is present but not taking part in a situation or event

4. the electronic posting of mean-spirited messages about a person

7. to refuse to take notice of

9. to make fun of

11. a confidence and satisfaction in oneself