

Cystic Teratoma SAT Review

Across

- 2. Sonographically seen as an echogenic vascular mass invading the myometrium.
- 6. Teratomas can cause rupture of the ovary, infection, cancer and _____ of the ovary.
- 9. _____ can present in adolescent girls with the start of menarche.
- 10. Affects 1:82 in _____ population.
- 12. Also known as a _____.

- 13. _____ is a differential of cystic teratoma.
- Down
- 1. An egg is fertilized by two sperm. The placenta becomes thick and cystic. The fetus will have multiple triploidy anomalies.
 - 3. Malignant form of trophoblastic disease.
 - 4. Multilocular cysts of the ovaries, that result from overstimulation by high levels of hCG. Associated with GTD.

- 5. Occurs in women around _____ years of age.
- 7. Most common ovarian tumor in children and adolescents.
- 8. Affects 1:1500 in _____ population.
- 11. Contains a highly echogenic nodular focus, which is called a _____.