

DATA HANDLING TERMS

Across

- 5. The sample should be _____ of the whole population under consideration
- 7. Used to to collect data from all people in a community
- 8. The entire group of people studied
- 9. The results of a statistical investigation
- 11. A smaller selection of the population

12. The study and manipulation of data, including ways to gather, review, analyze, and draw conclusions from data

13. Data that is counted

Down

- 1. Used to collect data from a selection of people in a community
- 2. Data that is measured

3. The sample should be _____ ; in other words, the sample should allow for every person in the population to stand a chance of being selected

4. A tool used to collect data when doing a survey

6. _____ data is data that is not organised in any meaningful way

10. If the selection of the sample is not random, you stand the chance of having a _____ sample