

Name: _____

DENTAL X-RAY FILMS

Across

9. Front cover, that faces the tubehead, is made out of plastic to allow the x-ray beam to pass through

10. Intensifying screens contain fluoresce _____ crystals that emit a blue or gree light that exposes the screen film

11. What film size is known as the standard size

12. The term used when placing film outside the mouth

13. Emulsion is present on only one side of this film type

Down

1. Film type used to examine large areas of the maxilla and mandible

2. X-ray film serves as an image _____ that records an image when exposed to energy in the form of x-radiation

3. Rare _____ intensifying screens emit green light and must be paired with a green sensitive film to minimize patient exposure

4. Component of film that is transparent with a slight blue tint to emphasize contrast and enhance image quality

5. Absorbs x-radiation and stores energy from radiation. In D Speed they appear large whereas in F speed films they appear small

6. Catagory of film used to examine teeth and supporting structures

7. Film type used to examine the entire tooth, root, crown and surrounding structures

8. The visible image that results when the exposed film with a _____ image undergoes chemical processing

Word Bank

PERIAPICAL	LATENT	PHOSPHORS	INTRAORAL	RECEPTOR
OCCLUSAL	EXTRAORAL	EARTH	CRYSTALS	DUPLICATING
TWO	CASSETTE	BASE		