

DIGITAL SELF

Across

2. This happens when a person browses on social media alone and compared himself/herself to the online personal of others.
6. It is the sum of your characteristics and interactions.
8. Self that is the presentation and impression management
9. It is also called uploading or downloading activities, connections and thoughts in social media.
10. They may also have multiple characters, increasing one's anonymity.

Down

1. Characterized as the "breakout of the visual" online.
3. We are living in a _____ other than face to face interaction.
4. It's where we automatically make inferences about them without even being consciously aware of it.
5. It is where you interact with will and act its own version of who you are based on the info that you have shared.
7. In setting boundaries to our online self we need to guard it.