

Name: _____

Date: _____

DRAMA FINAL

Across

3. Everything except costumes or scenery, used as part of a dramatic scene i.e. pan, suitcase, stuffed animal

7. A written manuscript containing dialogue and stage directions

10. Audible noise, not spoken by an actor used to help create the environment, establish a mood or aide in telling the story i.e. door slam, thunder, phone ringing

11. To ad-lib or invent dialog not in the script

12. An element of production that often helps create a mood, add suspense, etc.

14. A dramatic presentation made by one person, also called a soliloquy

15. Cosmetics applied to the actor's face and body that helps create the image of who the character is

Down

1. Events of the story; has a beginning, a middle, and an end

2. Clothing worn onstage to give information about a character, such as where the story takes place, when it takes place, social status, etc.

4. The conversation between two or more characters onstage

5. A painted backdrop or flat on a theatrical stage that represents where the story takes place

6. To act out a story or situation with movement only, no words and no sound

8. The storyline of a play developed through the unfolding of a series of events

9. Disagreement between characters or ideas in a play

13. A part in a play; a character