

Dear Canada, Footsteps In The Snow

Across

- 3. Torn pieces of cloth, paper or other material.
4. A tone in someone's voice of being threatened.
9. A word for attacking someone in return for a similar attack.
11. Speaking badly about someone's religion or insulting a God.
13. Having plenty of something.

14. A word for taking a long journey, mostly by foot.

15. A manner that shows bold disobedience.

Down

- 1. To take or secure something.
2. A paste of dried and pounded meat mixed with melted fat and other ingredients, originally made by North Americans.
5. Doing something in a very unpleasant way.

6. Someone or something that does something without stopping.

7. An action or speech that makes someone annoyed or angry.

8. To hold and use a weapon or tool.

10. A word for a person who is lacking energy or enthusiasm.

12. A word for carrying a boat or its cargo between navigable waters.