

Defences used in court

Across

4. If the accused was set up by the police or etc, this defence is called?

5. The accused use this defence if there were threats made by the victim right as the offence happened.

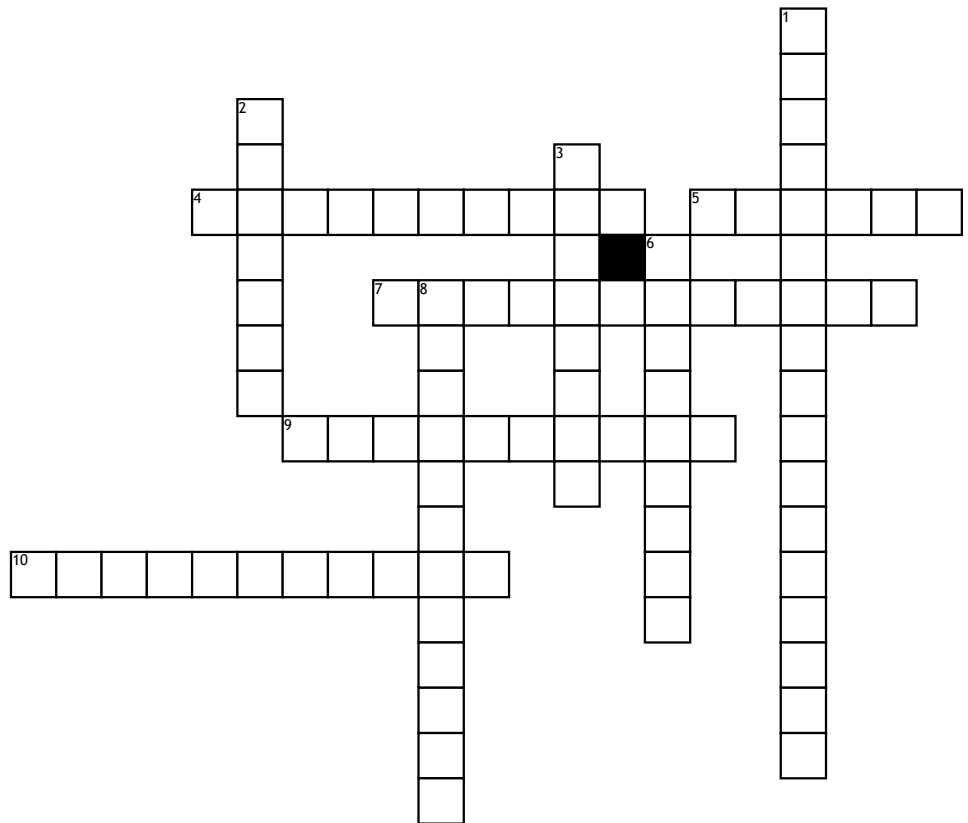

7. If the accused is honest about committing the offence by mistake, this defence is called?

9. The accused has no control over his or her body.

10. This defence is used if the accused defended her or his personal safety or property.

Down

1. This defence is a mental issue that has happened at birth or because of natural decay.

2. The accused can say that the victim allowed them to do this act.

3. If the accused has a disease to their mind or is mentally ill, and cannot see why the act he did is wrong, the defence is called?

6. This defence is used when the accused was forced to commit a crime during an emergency

8. If the accused was in an extreme mental state caused by drugs in the act, this defence would be called?