

Defense and Foreign Policy

Across

- 3. Taxes on imported goods.
- 6. The protection of people's basic freedoms and needs.
- 7. Cabinet department created after the 9/11 terrorist attacks.
- 8. Area of policy making that encompasses how one country builds relationships with other countries in order to safeguard its national interest.
- 9. Chief executive branch department responsible for formulation and implementation of U.S. foreign policy.

- 10. Area of policy making that focuses on the strategies that a country uses to protect itself from its enemies.

Down

- 1. U.S. anti-communist policy initiated in 1947 that became the basis of U.S. foreign policy throughout the Cold War.
- 2. The U.S. policy of avoiding entangling alliances with European powers.
- 4. An organization that joins 27 countries in Europe.
- 5. A barrier built by East Germany in 1961 to cut off democratic West Berlin from communist East Berlin.