

Name: _____

Date: _____

Definition review

- | | |
|--|---------------|
| 1. High-strung, tense | A. Quadrangle |
| 2. To vary between opposing beliefs, feelings, or theories | B. Buttress |
| 3. Irritably sullen and churlish in mood or manner | C. Inexorable |
| 4. To scold or condemn vehemently and at length | D. Surly |
| 5. The act of looting or plundering, especially in war | E. Quell |
| 6. Something that supports or strengthens | F. Vocation |
| 7. An air or attitude of mystery and reverence developing around something or someone | G. Harangue |
| 8. To examine in a minute way | H. Purview |
| 9. A person who revolts against civil authority or an established government | I. Tenuous |
| 10. The range or limit of authority, competence, responsibility, concern, or intention | J. Platitude |
| 11. Lacking originality, freshness, or novelty | K. Battalion |
| 12. Quiet, pacify | L. Insurgent |
| 13. Not to be persuaded, moved, or stopped; relentless | M. Pillage |
| 14. The work in which a person is employed | N. Oscillate |
| 15. A 4-sided enclosure especially when surrounded by buildings | O. Taut |
| 16. A banal, trite, or stale remark | P. Berate |
| 17. Communion | Q. Eucharist |
| 18. A ranting speech or writing | R. Mystique |
| 19. Having little substance or strength | S. Banal |
| 20. A considerable body of troops organized to act together | T. Parse |