

Name: _____ Date: _____

Dementia Terms

1. Alzheimer's destroys brain cells, causing _____ and problems with thinking and behavior severe enough to affect work, lifelong hobbies, or social life.
 2. Any disorder or disease of the brain is a _____
 3. _____ means relating to vessels that conduct and circulate fluids in the body.
 4. The very beginning or early stages of a disease is called the _____.
 5. The way a person acts towards self or others is called _____
 6. A progressive deterioration of cognitive and intellectual functions and memory is called _____
 7. Everyday tasks such as eating, bathing, grooming, dressing, and going to the bathroom are called _____.
 8. Low mood that prevents a person from leading a normal life. Its more than just feeling sad or down. It lasts longer and can affect sleep and appetite. _____
 9. How a person walks is described as their _____
 10. Wandering or walking back and forth is called _____.
- A. Behavior
B. Depression
C. Dementia
D. memory loss
E. Activities of daily living
F. Vascular
G. Onset
H. Gait
I. Brain disease
J. Pacing