

Dermatology 1

Across

5. Lesions on the pinnae of ears indicative of this diseases
 6. Dried exudate, cells, pus and scale adherent to the skin surface
 9. The major sign of canine atopic dermatitis
 11. The main drug in a licensed emulsion that can be painted onto the skin to treat equine culicoides hypersensitivity
 14. Most common ectoparasite of British cats and dogs (G species)
 15. Word for the breakdown of keratinocyte intercellular bridges
 16. Common name for dermatophytosis

17. Common opportunistic yeast pathogen of the skin

18. The control substance used in an intradermal test for canine atopic dermatitis
 19. Cells killed by cytotoxic T cells in interface dermatitis
 20. Word for the complete obliteration of hair follicles due to disease

Down

1. Most commonly involved body area in canine pemphigus foliaceus
 2. Drug commonly included in shampoos used to remove crust and scale

3. The type of antigen-specific antibodies involved in canine atopic dermatitis
 4. Species of Staphylococcus that most commonly causes canine deep pyoderma
 7. Narrow spectrum antibiotic commonly used in skin disease
 8. Species of Staphylococcus that causes porcine exudative dermatitis
 10. Part of the skin that becomes especially thick in interface dermatitis (2 words)
 12. Well-demarcated, large lesion seen on upper lip of cats (2 words)
 13. The primary lesions involved in pyoderma