

Dermatology Crossword

Across

2. Medical term for a bruise
 3. Medical term for hair loss
 5. Shape of a lesion described as "coin-like" with no central clearing
 9. An inflamed hair follicle
 10. A circumscribed flat skin lesion without elevation or depression
 15. Yellowing of the skin from increased bilirubin
 16. Circumscribed superficial cavity of the skin that contains purulent exudate
 18. A plateau-like lesion elevated above the skin surface
 21. red vascular lesion usually found on the skin
 22. Circumscribed superficial cavity of the skin containing serous fluid or blood; <1cm

24. Thin, avascular and most superficial layer of the skin
 26. Brownish pigment, determined by genetics and increased by sunlight
 27. Hypertrophic scar
 28. A cavity within the skin containing solid or semi-solid material
 29. Desquamated flakes of stratum corneum, loose but adherent to the skin

Down

1. Fatty tumor
 4. Shape of a lesions described as "ring-like" with a central clearing
 6. Dried serum, blood or purulent exudate on the skin surface
 7. A rounded or flat-topped plaque that is fleeting (evanesces), due to localized dermal edema

8. A superficial, raised, solid lesions <0.5cm in diameter
 11. Small linear or serpiginous pathway in the epidermis caused by mites
 12. Linear erosions in the skin caused by scratching
 13. A type of gland that produces sebum, or a fatty substance, onto the skin surface
 14. Bluish discoloration of the skin usually indicative of low tissue oxygenation
 17. Yellow skin pigment
 19. A raised, palpable lesion that is larger and usually deeper than a papule
 20. Diminution or loss of some or all layers of the skin
 23. Heaviest organ in the body
 25. flat macular lesions larger than 1 cm