Name: _____

Designed with YOU in Mind!

Across

3. an object-oriented computer programming language commonly used to create interactive effects within web browsers.
4. The city in which our school is located
9. The standard language used to create web pages
10. A software distribution model in which a third-party provider hosts applications and makes them available to customers on the internet.
11. an internet standard that extends the format to support email.
12. A machine that performs various functions

13. A link from a hypertext file or document to another location or file, typically activated by clicking on a highlighted word or image on the screen.
14. What "WE ARE" here at our school
15. A visual guide that represents the skeletal framework of a website. They're created for the purpose of arranging elements to best accomplish a particular purpose.
16. A software that is acting on behalf of a user. It allows the website to customize content for the capabilities of a particular device.

Down

1. Describes how HTML elements are to be displayed on screen, paper, or in other media.

2. A visual way of interacting with a computer using items such as windows, icons, and menus, used by most operating systems.
5. an issue tracking system that manages and maintains lists of issues, as needed by an organizer.
6. A program like Google Chrome, used to display web pages
7. A web development tool that lets you create dynamic web pages
8. A standardized system for tagging text files to achieve font, color, graphics, and hyperlink effects on World Wide Web pages.