

Development

Across

2. This is most used strategy to become developed. It was used by the Four Asian Tigers.

4. An issue with HDI is that it doesn't account for this.

7. An example of this is the Democratic Republic of the Congo.

9. This is when investment starts in a country's economy.

10. This indicator of development would include education and literacy rates.

13. The 5th phase of Rostow's development model.

14. This form of a development model is similar to environmental determinism.

It's hard to change the regional disparities of an area.

17. This indicator of development can include life expectancy, IMR, and NIR.

18. This indicator of development can include GDP per capita, types of jobs, and demand of consumer goods.

19. Modern technology is diffused to multiple different industries during this phase.

20. This is a feature of the Gender-Related Development Index.

21. The time of rapid growth in an economy.

22. An example of this is Port Gentile, Gabon where industry is concentrated for oil.

Down

1. This is an environmental cost of development.

3. This is the idea that MDCs can control the development of LDCs.

5. This implies progress by a country.

6. This type of development models is similar to possibilism. Every country is able to be developed.

8. An example of this is the United Kingdom.

11. An example is the UN.

12. A barrier to economic development.

15. The first stage of Rostow's development model.

16. This made the Human Development Index (HDI)