

Development Three Through Six

Across

1. any instant of accidental urination by a child over 3 years old

8. ability to perform tasks that involve coordinating the movement of the hands with eyes

11. an acute contagious disease that causes a fever and swelling of salivary glands

12. contagious acute viral disease with symptoms that include bright red rash

14. to mock

15. highly contagious disease that causes swelling of lymph nodes and reddish pink rash

16. The skillful balanced movement of different parts of the body at the same time.

Down

2. severe infectious disease that causes the brain stem and spinal cord to inflame

3. treated to keep fabric from burning

4. set of teeth that begins to come in during the school age years, meant to last a long time

5. deliberately and openly disobedient

6. development of large muscle groups

7. development of small muscle groups

9. an injection of weakened disease

10. an infectious bacterial disease that causes violent coughing spasms

13. rotting of teeth