

Name: _____

Date: _____

Developmental Stages from Conception to Birth

Across

- 2. Period that lasts about seven months, the prenatal period between two months after conception and birth in typical pregnancies
- 3. is called ____, when fingerprints are present, can smile, sex is distinguishable, and can urinate
- 7. The period of prenatal development that occurs 2 to 8 weeks after conception. The rate of cell differentiation intensifies, support systems for the cells form, and organs appear
- 8. trimester in which heartbeat is audible, skin is wrinkled, and waste matter is collected
- 11. trimester that last 3 months; iron is being stored in liver, vernix caseoso, less active, gains immunities from mother

- 13. fertilized egg where beginning development of spinal cord, nervous system, GI tract, heart, and lungs
  - 14. cell division
  - 15. when baby is in breech position and baby is removed from mother's uterus through an incision
  - 16. period of prenatal development that takes place in the first 2 weeks after conception
  - 17. trimester that starts from conception to 12 weeks
- Down
- 1. the shortest birth stage where placenta and umbilical cord are detached and expelled
  - 4. the attachment of the zygote to the uterine wall

- 5. the outer layer of cells that provide nutrition and support for embryo
- 6. is called ____, when face and brain forms, arms and legs move, heartbeat detectable
- 9. the longest birth stage where uterine contraction dilate the cervix to an opening of about 10 cent.
- 10. baby's head starts to move through the cervix, birth canal, and finally emerges from mother's body
- 12. inner layer cells that develop during the germinal period and later develop into the embryo