

Diabetic Wound Care

Across

2. What grading system/scale is used to classify diabetic wounds?
5. Duoderm dressings promote granulation and facilitate _____ debridement.
7. A wet to dry dressing, changed regularly, provides this type of debridement.
9. Topical antibiotic that may be used to resolve infection that may be present in a wound.
10. Documentation of a beneficiary's A1C wound support an attempt to optimize _____.

Down

1. Santyl is an example of _____ debridement.
3. Diabetic shoes, crutches, orthotics and braces all demonstrate which component of standard wound care?
4. A physician orders repeat A1C's and uses that information to adjust diabetic medications. This is an example of optimization of _____.
6. To qualify for coverage of HBOT, wounds must be evaluated every _____ days.
8. Diabetic wounds of the _____ extremities are covered if all criteria are met.