

Different types of Landforms

Across

7. This is a row of connected mountains.
 9. A grassy plain that has few or no trees is called a _____.
 10. This is a raised area of land with a rounded top.
 13. An area of land that has water on three sides like Florida is called a _____.
 14. This is an area where land meets the ocean and can be sandy or have a lot of rocks.
 15. An area of land that is surrounded by water is called an _____.

Down

1. This is a deep valley with very steep sides and is formed when rivers wears away at the rock over a long period of time.
 2. This area rises above the land around it like a mountain, but has a flat surface on top.
 3. This area is between hills, mountains, or plateaus.
 4. This is one type of landform.
 5. This is a type of landform that rises up around the area that surrounds it and has a peak at the top.

6. Wide flat areas of land which have rich soil and are good for farming are called _____.
 8. What is a natural formation or area of land called?
 11. Water that flows from higher areas into the valleys form Streams and _____.
 12. Over years water wears away at coasts to form these and they have land on three sides of them. The water is often calm.

Word Bank

Canyon	Bays	Mountain	Plateau	Valley
Landform	Hill	Peninsula	Plains	Rivers
Prairie	Range	Continent	Coast	Island