

Name: _____

Date: _____

Digestive disorders

Across

- 1. Inflammation of mucous membrane lining of stomach and intestine
- 3. Blocking of the bile duct causing pain in the shoulder blades and digestive disorders and jaundice
- 11. Rare yet serious inflammation of the pancreas resulting from activating of pancreatic enzymes in he pancreatic duct
- 13. ulcers develop when _____ eats away at the stomach lining
- 14. Virus spread through contaminated food or H2O, inflammation of the liver

- 15. When defecation delayed, feces becomes dry and hard

Down

- 2. If bile is stored in the gallbladder for too long or too much water is removed, the cholesterol it contains may crystallize, forming these
- 4. Caused by a virus found in blood
- 5. Occurs when the stomach is irritated by a virus or bacterial food poisoning (symptom: feeling of nausea)
- 6. As the bile pigments circulate through the body, the tissues become yellow or

- 7. When small quantities of stomach acid are regurgitated into the esophagus
- 8. Chronic inflammatory condition where the liver is severely damaged and becomes hard and fibrous
- 9. Loose, watery, frequent bowel movements when feces pass along colon to rapidly
- 10. A sac attached to the cecum and has no known function.
- 12. Sore or lesion that forms in the lining of the stomach