

Diseases

Across

4. the result of pathogens or germs invading the body, multiplying, and harming some of your body's cells
 5. a disease that can be spread to a person from another person, an animal, or an object
 9. a group of abnormal cells that forms a mass
 13. an organism, such as an insect, that transmits pathogens
 14. a disease that occurs when abnormal cells multiply out of control
 15. organisms that are so small they can only be seen through a microscope
 17. cleanliness
 20. special white blood cells in the blood and lymphatic system

21. specific proteins that attach to antigens, keeping them from harming the body
 22. a substance that can cause cancer
 23. not cancerous
 24. a serious condition that occurs when an artery of the brain breaks or becomes blocked
 25. any condition that reduces the strength or function of the heart and blood vessels

Down

1. germs that cause diseases
 2. this is any condition that interferes with the proper functioning of the body and mind
 3. a combination of body defenses made up of the cells, tissues, and organs that fight pathogens in the body

6. the body's response to injury or disease, resulting in a condition of swelling, pain, heat, and redness
 7. able to spread to others by direct or indirect contact
 8. a disease that prevents the body from converting food into energy
 10. a secondary circulatory system that helps the body fight pathogens and maintains its fluid balance
 11. substances that send the immune system into action
 12. a disease that cannot be spread from one person to another
 16. Cancerous
 18. a disease of the joints marked by pain and swelling in body joints
 19. the removal of a tissue sample from a person for examination