

Name: _____

Date: _____

Diseases

Across

4. What is an immune system reaction that occurs soon after eating a certain food.
7. What is a disruption to the regular or normal functions of
9. What disease is created by the lack of or inability to use the hormone insulin which results in irregular blood glucose levels, often spurred by poor diet, lack of exercise and obesity
10. What disease is classified as the narrowing of arteries leading to the heart
11. What can happen when the blood supply to the brain is interrupted or reduced

Down

1. What disease happens when the average amount of cholesterol in bloodstream increases above normal and increases the risk of heart disease
2. What free radicals are produced in food that help fight the excessive free radicals found in cancer
3. What is the force of blood pushing against the walls of arteries called when its forced
5. What is a condition of the living animal or plant body or of one of its parts that impairs normal functioning and is typically manifested by distinguishing signs and symptoms
6. What is the intestinal disorder caused by a reaction to proteins in certain grains
8. An autoimmune disease that occurs when T cells attack and destroy most of the beta cells in the pancreas that are needed to produce insulin,