

Do you got the itis?

Across

- 3. It is most important to teach patient to avoid this as much as possible to avoid further problems
- 5. This fun procedure can be done to further assess your diagnosis
- 7. A connection made surgically between adjacent parts of the intestine
- 8. Complication where the diverticula pouch ruptures and materials from the bowel enter into the bowel enter abdominal cavity
- 10. Infection in the diverticula of the large intestine

Down

- 1. If you are suffering from Diverticulitis you probably havent been eating enough
- 2. Most diverticula form in the narrowest part of the large intestine known as the
- 4. Diverticulitis is often referred to as left sided
- 6. In order to decrease stress on the bowels, patients are often this at the hospital
- 9. People who tend to be at most risk for Diverticulitis

Word Bank

- |             |               |                |           |
|-------------|---------------|----------------|-----------|
| Fiber       | Obese         | Appendicitis   | Straining |
| Anastomosis | Colonoscopy   | Diverticulitis | NPO       |
| Peritonitis | Sigmoid colon |                |           |