

Name: _____

Date: _____

Dog Anatomy Crossword

Across

2. Firm, but flexible tissue. Not as hard as bone

6. Hard tissue that protects and supports other organs

7. What type of joint is the elbow joint?

10. Where bones meet that allows for movement

11. This part of the skeleton has central axis bones

12. Tissue that connects bone to muscle

13. Inside cavities of spongy bone, formation of red blood cells

15. Where is protein digested?

16. This is the term used for an animal who eats almost anything

Down

1. What type of joint is the carpus (wrist) joint?

3. Outer most layer, Cushions the hard portion of the bone, Repair of broken bones

4. tissue that connects bone to bone

5. Inside bone: Fat and energy storage

8. The bones of forelimbs are part of this skeleton

9. Intervertebral joints are this type of joint:

14. Bones of the hindlimbs are part of this skeleton