

Domestic Policy Vocabulary

Across

3. What are communication outlets that store and deliver information to the people?
7. What are the policies that we create that involve foreign countries?
9. What are the policies that we use that involve issues here at home?
11. In which type of primary can a person only vote for people who are in the party the voter is registered for?
12. What are people hired by companies and interest groups to try and influence policy in Congress?

13. Which third party likes the idea of not allowing government to get very involved in your business?

14. Which party tends to prefer more traditional policies and not embrace change?

15. Which party tends to support more progressive ideas and prefers change?

16. What is a group of people who get together to fund campaigns?

Down

1. What is a group of people who have similar interests and they get together to work on 1 particular issue?

2. In which type of primary election can a person vote for any candidate that they choose?

4. Who are the people who run for office?

5. What is it called when people stop doing business with a certain store or a country stops trading with another country as punishment?

6. What is it called when Congress refers a question to the voters and allows them to vote on it?

8. Which party wants to protect the environment?

10. What is an organization that people join to support their political party and influence lots of issues?