

Drama Glossary

Across

- 2. Which direction to move and where to stand
5. The sound giving off an idea to the audience
7. Helpful for theatre performers in describing areas of the playing space
10. A type of theatre showing a story through movement
11. Is a trigger or an action to be carried out at a specific time
12. Is a literary technique in which writers employ two or more characters to be engaged in conversation with one another
13. Written dialogue showing the story line and setting
16. Implies a greater meaning than the literal suggestion and is usually what it is at face value

- 17. Cast is made up of cast members in which multiple principal actors and performers are assigned roughly equal amounts of importance and screen time in a dramatic production

- 18. Is a literary term used to describe the event that make up a story or main part of a story
21. A movie that is set in the past in which the actors are dressed like people from the past
22. Focusing on the work at hand, being in character or being in the moment.
23. Types of theatre
24. How the actor uses his or her voice to convey character

Down

- 1. A story with a beginning, middle and end
3. An object placed under or against something to hold it in a particular position

4. Agreement

- 6. They can develop the story through emotion and communicate the feeling and thoughts of the character
8. An instructor in the theatre field who oversees and orchestrates the mounting of a theatre production by unifying various endeavours and aspects of production
9. Practice of a performance
14. The middle of the stage
15. A form of live theatre in which the plot, character and dialogue of a game, scene or story are made up in the moment
19. Working out the details of an actor's moves in relation to the camera
20. An expressive movement of the body, or something that is said or done to show a feeling

Word Bank

Plot	Sound	Focus	Center stage	Ensemble
Stage direction	Theatrical style	Props	Convention	Gesture
Facial expression	Physical theatre	Rehearsal	Script	Costumes
BLOCKING	Symbolism	Cue	Downstage	Director
Dialogue	Melodrama	Vocal expression	Improvisation	