

Drama Terminology

Across

5. The type of performance piece. i.e romance, action, horror.
6. A piece of work that actors base a performance around. i.e a painting, a piece of music, a news article.
8. Where actors use their bodies to create scenes or props.
9. Someone who writes plays.
10. A speech by 1 person speaking alone on stage often revealing something about their past or personality.

Down

1. When the audience is sat in a circle around the stage.
2. A way of building a character where a person sits in a chair while other people question them and the actor has to remain in character.
3. The distance between characters to show their relationship on stage.
4. What was Stanislavski known for using in his performances ?
7. What effect did Brecht create?