

Dramatic Language Conventions

Across

5. The occurrence of the same letter or sound at the beginning of adjacent or closely connected words
7. The use of symbols to represent ideas or qualities
10. Used to help understanding of a fictional character
12. Exaggerated statements or claims not meant to be taken literally
13. The Construction of a fictional character

Down

1. What scenes of events that the story follows
2. Speaking thoughts out loud without other characters hearing
3. When and Where the story takes place
4. The speech of two characters
6. A figure of speech involving the comparison of one thing with another thing of a different kind

8. A group of words established by usage as having a meaning not deducible from those of the individual words
9. A connotation is a commonly understood cultural or emotional association that any given word or phrase carries, in addition to its explicit or literal meaning, which is its denotation.
11. When the internal vowel sounds of a word are the same