

Dried Fruit Fact Matching

- |  |              |
|--|--------------|
| 1. I am mostly made in California.   | A. Banana    |
| 2. I have lots of seeds, but I am grown on a tree.   | B. Cranberry |
| 3. I come from a round fruit, but when dried I am in strips.                                 | C. Tomato    |
| 4. When I'm in fresh-fruit form I am the size of a small fist.                               | D. Fig       |
| 5. My name changes from when I am fresh to when I am dried.                                  | E. Raisin    |
| 6. I am one of the few green fruits.   | F. Mango     |
| 7. I am often mistaken for a vegetable, and when dried I am sometimes used on pizza.         | G. Pineapple |
| 8. I come in dried pieces that look like hoola hoops.  | H. Apricot   |
| 9. I get turned into a sauce-like form for some holidays.                                    | I. Kiwi      |
| 10. When I am dried, I am called "____ chips".   | J. Prune     |
| 11. When I am fresh I look like a small lemon, but when I am dried I am used as a sweetener. | K. Dates     |