

Drill

Across

- 2. orderly, obedient or retrained conduct
- 5. A sound of distinct pitch, loudness, vibration and quality.
- 9. States the movement; mentally prepares person for its execution.
- 10. Formation in which people are side by side or abreast of each other.
- 11. Right or left side of any formation as seen by a person.

- 12. Point at which a person turns while marching.
- 13. Distance between cadet in a column. measured by raising the left arm to the front.
- 14. Formation in which people are arranged one behind the other.
- 15. Command that tells when the movement is executed.

Down

- 1. Rise and fall in the pitch of the voice.
- 3. Lateral space between personnel in a formation. measured from right to left.
- 4. Arrangement of people or elements of a unit in a prescribed manner.
- 6. A sharp, precise response to a drill command.
- 7. units move in a uniform manner from one place to another.
- 8. Uniform rhythm in which a movement is executed.