

Drug unit #2

Across

6. Something that increases the likelihood of a negative outcome.
7. Something that increases the likelihood of a positive outcome.
8. Group of synthetic drugs that are related to hormones.
10. Painkiller produced by morphine.

11. A person who supports the harmful behavior of others.

12. A person who wants to rescue and control, or try to "fix" someone else.

Down

1. Unpleasant reactions that occur when a person who is physically dependent on a drug no longer takes the drug.

2. A very strong desire to continue using a drug for emotional reasons.

3. condition which person develops tolerance to a drug.

4. Choosing an immediate reward regardless of potential harmful effects.

5. a responsible person who guides another person.

9. Condition in which body becomes used to a substance.