

Dust Bowl

Across

- 1. How did the farmers know from which direction the storms were coming from?
- 4. Dust bowl farmers used farming techniques taken from a region that is very close to home for us.
- 6. Dust storms were also known as?
- 7. What did the farmers and their families use as protection from the dust storms?

9. Identify the region of the U.S. where the Dust Bowl happened?

10. In the fall of 1934, people were beginning to wonder what was going to happen to them because so many people and cattle were _____.

11. How many states were involved in the Dust Bowl?

12. Dust storms were becoming more frequent and in 1933, a record breaking number of storms happened - how many?

Down

- 2. How many acres of land eventually turned into waste land?
- 3. What other science concept was a product of the dust storms?
- 5. Outsiders, known as _____, began to speculate on the wheat and eventually abused the land due to greed.
- 8. In the spring of 1935, most farmers had left after 7 years of bad crops, but 6 months later it _____ to their surprise.