

ECON CROSSWORD PUZZLE

Across

- 4. Actions of people and government always have effects that are unanticipated or unintended.
- 6. the numerical representation of the law of demand
- 9. the lowest price that can be changed for a good or service
- 11. when quantity supplied is more than quantity demanded
- 15. Economist famous for his theories on capitalism and communism
- 16.d

- 18. the highest price that someone can legally charge for a good or service
- 19. the quality of bringing satisfaction or happiness
- 20. A political system in which the government owns all property

Down

- 1. a financial payment made by government for certain actions
- 2. the graphical representation of the law of demand
- 3. a numerical chart illustrating the law of supply
- 5. any good that is owned by the government

- 7. bbbb
- 8. ...
- 10. A way to encourage people to take a certain action
- 12. tasks that people pay others to perform for them
- 13. means additional in economics
- 14. any place where people come together to buy and sell goods or services
- 17. The most highly valued opportunity