

ELA VOCABULARY

Across

- 2. to study something in detail and understand its meaning or purpose. Every time you solve a problem, you have used analysis to find the answer to a problem
- 3. taking something out of text and putting it into your own words. Still need to give credit to the source
- 6. giving credit to the source (person, book, or website) you got your information from

8. something that is written

- 10. describe, tell about in detail
- 11. On Time
- 12. something included in your paper that backs up your argument or conclusion

Down

- 1. writing that is descriptive. It gives clear details about a person, place, thing, or event. It gives information that the reader needs to understand

4. information from the reading material that proves something is true

- 5. something that is clearly written or said, leaving no room for confusion or doubt
- 7. a conclusion reached on the base of evidence and reasoning
- 9. to describe an idea or fact to someone else